Way out on the ocean, far beyond the seven seas.

There's a tiny little boat, faith is keeping her afloat. And a tiny little skipper with his worn and tattered coat. You see the law of the ocean, says that you shall never fail.

Just use your heart as a rudder, faith as a compass and a blanket for a sail.

Sleep for the weary and dreams for us all. Just rest your head on a pillow and I'll tell you a tale. Use your heart as a blanket and a blanket for a sail. You see the law of the ocean, says that you shall never fail. Just use your heart as a rudder,
